

Health Coverage Tax Credit

Health Coverage Tax Credit

The Health Coverage Tax Credit (HCTC) is a Federal program established under the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. This credit pays 72.5 percent of an individuals' monthly healthcare premium.

Eligibility

You may be eligible for the Health Coverage Tax Credit if:

- You are receiving a Trade Readjustment Allowance (TRA), or will receive Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) benefits once your unemployment benefits are exhausted, or...
- You are receiving benefits under the Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) or Reemployment Trade Adjustment Assistance (RTAA) programs and you are at least 50 years of age, or ...
- You are receiving benefits from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) and you are at least 55 years old.

Qualified Health Plans

In addition to the eligibility requirements listed above, you must also have qualified health insurance. Qualified health plans include:

- COBRA continuation coverage, unless the employer or former employer pays at least 50% of the cost of coverage, or...
- Your spouse's coverage provided his or her employer pays less than 50% of the premium on a pre-tax basis, or...
- Individual (non-group) health insurance that you purchased at least 30 days prior to your last day of work, or ...
- State Qualified Health Plan (Anthem Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Virginia)
